

One-Off Session Information

Personalized 1-on-1 Strategy Sessions

90-minute, one-on-one sessions deliver tailored, in-depth feedback to accelerate your music career. Designed specifically for creators ready to level up, each session is customized to your unique needs and goals.

In our focused time together, we'll:

Sessions for Artists, Songwriters, Producers, Musicians, etc will differ based on need.

- Listen to your existing tracks (or new material) and provide honest, constructive critique on sound, production, songwriting, and commercial potential.
- Review your current branding (visuals, artist identity, online presence, and messaging), to ensure it stands out and connects authentically with your target audience.
- Analyze your overall strategy: release plans, marketing approach, audience growth, streaming/distribution tactics, networking, and monetization opportunities.
- Deliver clear, prioritized action items, practical next steps with timelines and resources so you leave the session with an actionable roadmap to implement immediately.

Whether you're refining your sound, building a stronger brand, or mapping out your next moves in the industry, these sessions provide the personalized guidance and accountability that group programs can't match. Invest in targeted progress toward launching (or relaunching) your music career with confidence.
